

Let Me Wear Your Red Hat (Tune: Let Me Call You Sweetheart)

Let me wear your red hat and your purple gown, too.
I'd like to be a Red Hat lady, just like you.
Fling that boa 'round my neck and add some pearls
Let me join the fun crowd like your Red Hat girls!
You keep the whole world happy with the things you do.
No one in a Red Hat group is ever blue.
To the other sisters you are always true.
If I could wear a red hat I'd be true blue, too!

Yes, We Have No More Red Hats (Tune: Yes, We Have No Bananas)

Yes, we have no more red hats,
We have no more red hats for you.
We wish we had some more red hats
But here's what we can do for you:
We have white hats and gray hats and green hats and blue.
We've ecru and puce hats and yellow ones, too
But Wait! I found one more red hat—the one I've been saving for you!

Red Hat Ladies (Tune: Bye Bye Blackbird)

Purple outfits and red hats, We're a going' where it's at,
Red Hat Ladies.
We're fun lovin' senior gals, and we are the best of pals,
Red Hat Ladies
When you see us smile and say "hello there",
Funny jokes and laughter, that's what we share.
Every time we go to lunch, We can't wait to see the bunch of Red Hat
Ladies. Red Hat Ladies.
